Nicole Garcia

Columbia, MD | 240-706-1656 | nicole.garcia2@howardcc.edu

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Graduated Highschool in May of 2026, and a freshman college student attending Howard Community College and majoring in Life Sciences. Certified as a clinical medical assistant and developing skills in video editing and audio editing. Skilled in using CapCut and Canva.

EDUCATION

Wilde Lake High School — High School Diploma| Graduated: 05/2026

National Healthcareer Association — Certified Clinical Medical Assistant | Certified: 05/2026

Howard Community College — Life Sciences Associate Degree | Started: 08/2026

MEDIA PRODUCTION & ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Introduction to Electronic Media — Class Projects | Howard Community College / AVMP-150, 2026

- Analyzed how film, music, digital platforms, and new technologies influence communication and culture
- Created concepts for multimedia and expanded cinema projects using visual design, sound, text, and digital media
- Researched and presented ideas about electronic media that includes audience engagement, representation, and creative technology

SELECTED PROJECTS & CREATIVE WORK

Princess Mononoke Media Inspiratorium Project | 2026

- Explored how animation combines visual storytelling, music, environmental themes, and cultural ideas.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Member of Student Government — Howard Community College | 09/2026

TECHNICAL & SOFTWARE SKILLS

- Media: Video editing, photography, audio editing, visual design
- Software: Canva, CapCut, Microsoft Word, Google Slides, Google Docs
- Other: Research, presentation, written communication, organization